The subcommittee met at 10:07 a.m., in room 2172, Rayburn House Office Building, Hon. Dante B. Fascell (chairman) presiding. Chairman Fascell. The subcommittee will please come to order. War Powers Compliance and U.S. Antiterrorism Policy We meet this morning to continue an ongoing series of hearings on the question of executive branch compliance with the War Powers Resolution. Our specific focus for this discussion has been brought about by the United States naval maneuvers in the Gulf of Sidra in late March, and the retaliatory bombing raid against Tripoli and other Libyan targets on April 14. We will also deal with the critical, fundamental question of how to integrate executive branch compliance with the provisions of the War Powers Resolution with an effective strategy for dealing with state-sponsored terrorism. So, we will see if we can add something in terms of improving the procedures for consultation under the resolution in cases of responses to terrorism. Clearly, the President's actions against Libya have the strong support of the Congress and the American people. However, when we respond with military force to state-sponsored terrorism directed against the United States, should it not be consistent with our own laws and constitutional procedures? We have experienced difficulty defining the constitutional responsibilities of the Congress and the Chief Executive and ensuring compliance with the statutory...
