Excerpt: .by blood, marriage, adoption, or other legal arrangements; a person living alone or sharing a household with others or living as a roomer in a private home or lodging house or in permanent living quarters in a hotel or motel, but who is financially independent; or two or more persons living together who use their incomes to make joint expenditure decisions. Financial independence is determined by the three major expense categories: Housing, food, and other living expenses. To be considered financially independent, at least two of the three major expense categories have to be provided entirely, or in part, by the respondent. Earner. A consumer unit member, 14 years of age or older, who reported having worked at least 1 week during the 12 months prior to the interview date. Education of reference person. The number of years of formal education of the reference person, on the basis of the highest grade completed. If enrolled at time of the interview, the grade being attended is the one recorded. Persons not reporting the extent of their education are classified under no school or not reported. Housing tenure. The family's principal place of residence during the survey. Owner includes families living in their own homes, cooperatives or condominium apartments, or townhouses. Renter includes families paying rent, as well as families living rent free in lieu of wages. Income before taxes. Total money earnings and selected money receipts during the 12 months prior to the interview...
