THE WALLS AROUND US

Algonquin Young Readers. Paperback. Condition: New. 336 pages. A gorgeously written, spellbinding ghost story. Chicago Tribune With evocative language, a shifting timeline and more than one unreliable narrator, Suma subtly explores the balance of power between the talented and the mediocre, the rich and the poor, the brave and the cowardly . . . To reveal more would be to uncover the bloody heart that beats beneath the floorboards of this urban-legend-tinged tale. The New York Times The Walls Around Us is a ghostly story of suspense told in two voices--one still living and one long dead. On the outside, theres Violet, an eighteen-year-old dancer days away from the life of her dreams when something threatens to expose the shocking truth of her achievement. On the inside, within the walls of a girls juvenile detention center, theres Amber, locked up for so long she cant imagine freedom. Tying these two worlds together is Orianna, who holds the key to unlocking all the girls darkest mysteries: What really happened on the night Orianna stepped between Violet and her tormentors What really happened on two strange nights at Aurora Hills Will Amber and Violet and Orianna ever get the justice they deserve--in this life or in another one Suma excels in creating surreal, unsettling stories with vivid language, and this psychological thriller is no exception. Along the way, Suma also makes a powerful statement about the ease with which guilt can be assumed and innocence awarded, not only in the criminal justice system, but in our hearts--in the stories we tell ourselves. A fabulous, frightening read. Booklist, starred review The wholly realistic view of adolescents meeting the criminal justice system is touched at first with the slimmest twist of an otherworldly creepiness, escalating finally to the truly hair-raising and macabre. Eerie, painful...
